Florida Preparing For Arrival Of Heavy Storm

PREDICTIONS FOR HURRICANE HAVE BEEN BROADCAST

Red Cross Rushes Work To Aid Possible Victims

MAY HIT COAST SOME TIME TODAY

Residents Hasten Making Preparations for Storm; Board Windows

Washington, Sept. 25.—The center of the tropical disturbance now located at Great Abaco island, in the Bahamas, will reach the southeast Florida coast between Miami and Jupiter late tonight if it does not change its course, the U. S. Weather Bureau announced today. Every precaution should be taken in the area, the bureau said.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Sept. 25.—Preparations are being hurried here today by local Red Cross officials for concentration of relief work in the face of a possible disaster. Activities under George W. Carr, chairman of the disaster relief committee, were started upon receipt of orders from Washington Red Cross officials.

Official weather bureau warnings from Washington received here today were that the hurricane will hit the coast some time this afternoon within the 150-mile stretch between here and Daytona Beach.

Miami, Fla., Sept. 25.—The specter of another hurricane hovered over Florida east coast today, and fear was sent into the hearts of residents in whose memory the 1928 catastrophe is still vivid.

To Strike Coast

Latest weather bureau reports indicated the storm should hit the coast in its present course all the way from strike in or near Cape Canaveral, just above Jupiter, Fla.

Residents of the potential storm area are trembling with the first streak of dawn today, most of them spent an uncomfortable night, with the doors and windows of their homes nailed down.

Warned sufficiently of the approach of the hurricane, towns in the danger zones were making extraordinary precautions for safety. At strategic points supplies of food, clothing, and medical supplies were held in readiness.

The storm was last reported in latitude 27, longitude 76, moving in a northwesterly direction at a rate of ten miles an hour, the weather bureau said the storm was likely of near hurricane proportion at the center.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Sept. 25.—Fearful of a repetition of the disastrous hurricane which devastated Palm Beach and vicinity a year ago, residents of this and other Florida localities were awaiting with alarm.

ASK DISMISSAL OF PEACOCK ON MURDER CHARGE

Justice Denies Plea Of Attorney; Testimony "Excluded"

Court House, White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 25.—A motion to declare a mistrial and dismiss the case against Earle Peacock, slayer of his young wife, Dolly, was denied by Justice Arthur S. Tompkins today.

Peacock was on the stand at the time. He had been rigorously cross examined and had been taken over for re-direct examination by defense attorney, Sidney A. Syme.

Some claimed evidence was being "excluded" because Peacock was not permitted to give certain testimony. He had asked the dark-visaged defendant if he remembered the words of the two songs he had sent Dolly when they were parted—"Just a Memory" and "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses."

"I remember the words of 'Just a Memory,'" said Peacock. District Atty. Frank H. Coyne objected to this character of testimony as irrelevant and was sustained by the court. Evidently Syme wanted Peacock to recite the words for the jury for he then made his motion.

DEATH MYSTERY SEEMS SOLVED

Identity of Girl Who Died In Hotel May Be Known

Cleveland, Sept. 25.—Identity of the pretty young "mystery woman" who died in a hospital here last Sunday after she was stricken with pneumonia in a downtown hotel where she had registered under the name of "Helen Crandall, of Buffalo, N. Y.," was expected to be completed with the arrival of Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss, retired Episcopal rector at Utica, N. Y., and his son, Joseph Byron-Curtiss of New York.

The retired rector and his son came to Cleveland upon learning that the description of the dead woman here tallied with that of their daughter and sister, Helen Byron-Curtiss, 32, worker in the circulation department of the New York Public library.

Although the mystery surrounding the young woman's identity was solved almost certainly lifted the mystery of her tragic visit to Cleveland remained unsolved, no satisfactory explanation has been found as to why she destroyed all marks of identification on her clothing and secluded herself in her hotel room for four days while dying of pneumonia. She had apparently chosen death alone in the hotel rather than call a physician and disclose her identity, it was believed.

COMMISSIONER TO FACE TRIAL IN CLEVELAND

Prosecutor Says Fromm's Statements Admit Bribery

RELEASED AFTER BOND IS POSTED

Payment Refusal Is Seen As Basis For Charge Against Official

Cleveland, Sept. 25.—Plans for the trial of Charles A. Fromm, president of the Stark county board of commissioners, on charges of soliciting a bribe in connection with the equipping of the Molly Stark million-dollar tuberculosis sanitarium, were laid here today while Stark and Cuyahoga county authorities launched into a joint probe of all contracts let for the sanitarium.

Fromm, a prominent Stark county political figure, was brought here yesterday, following his arrest at his home in Canton, for arraignment on a charge that he solicited a bribe of $400 from John E. Keefe and George H. Kirk of the Colson-Cleveland company which furnished food-conveying equipment for the sanitarium.

Fromm was released under $3,000 bond after pleading not guilty.

County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller asserted today that Fromm's trial will be held as soon as it is reached on the criminal docket.

"Fromm's own statement proves him guilty of solicitation of a bribe," Miller said today. Fromm had previously admitted, in denying the bribery charges, that he came to Cleveland and demanded 10 percent of the contracted price of the equipment which Kirk had offered to give him, but refused to pay after the contract had been awarded.

The state's contention in the trial is expected to center about Fromm's alleged refusal to authorize the payment of $2,033 due to the Olson company until his "cut" was paid. Fromm was indicted by the county grand jury here Monday upon the testimony of Keefe and Kirk who charged the Stark county commissioner with demanding the 10 percent "bonus."

Following his arrest, Fromm emphatically denied the charges.

"It's not true that I solicited a bribe," he asserted. "Kirk told me that he would give me half of his commission or ten per cent of the contract price. I told him his company would get the contract regardless, but he insisted that he would give me $400."

Fromm said that after the contract was awarded, Kirk refused to pay the $400.

"So I came to Cleveland and told Keefe that Kirk was a big crook—that's what made them sore," Fromm said.

CONGRESS TO PREPARE NEW INCOME RATE

Drafting of New Rate For Submission Is Started

Washington, Sept. 25.—The work of drafting a tax reduction program for submission at the December congress started at the treasury today.

Figures available showed that even though congress makes unexpected appropriations of exceeding $100,000,000 there still will be a safe margin for a slash in rates.

Because of the extraordinary business and speculative activity from the very beginning of the year, which in virtually every phase of commerce has exceeded 1928, it was thought that barring a most unexpected upset before January 1, income and corporation taxes for 1930 might pass $2,600,000,000, or even reach $3,000,000,000, on the basis of present rates.

The income and corporation tax collection for the year ending June 30, was $2,330,711,000, a gain of $157,000,000 over the preceding year despite an estimated loss, on the basis of the same business, of $150,000,000 from the 1 1/2 percent reduction in the corporation tax.

The increase, therefore, represented an actual gain of $307,000,000 in productivity of the tax law on corporate and individual business. Thus, providing there were no change in the rates, the heavier business and speculation of 1929 should result in an even greater gain in tax collections in 1930 than was noted between the current year and 1928.

EARLY MORNING ROBBERY NETS TWO MEN $100

Attendant Faces Guns Of Intruders; Steal Merchandise

SUSPECT ARRESTED BY SALEM POLICE

No Clues to Men Found; Second Holdup In Several Days

Two armed bandits held up William Underwood, Sharp st., attendant at the Pennzell gasoline filling station, Roosevelt and Jennings ave., early this morning, escaping with $100 in cash and $24 in merchandise from the station after forcing Underwood into a washroom of the place.

Underwood was seated in the office of the station about 2:15 a. m. today, he told police, when two well dressed young men approached the door and rapped at the window. The door was locked, and Underwood, thinking they wished to purchase gasoline or oil, unlocked it and allowed them to enter. They asked to use the washroom of the station, then requested the attendant to show them a gallon can of oil, which was displayed on a shelf.

Faces Two guns Underwood turned his back to the youths, and on facing them again found he was facing two revolvers, one held by each man. They ordered him to keep quiet, and one held a gun on him, while the other looked the two cash registers of the place. After searching the cash drawers, the men went through the attendant's pockets, taking about $20 from him.

They forced Underwood into the station washroom and ordered him immediately after they left the station. Underwood notified police but to remain there for five minutes, no trace was obtained of the bandits.

About $50 is believed to have been taken from the cash register of the gas station, while $17 in cash was taken from a drawer which was the property of William Underwood, attendant there during the day. About $24 in cigars, candy, cigarettes and other merchandise, also the property of Lewis, was also taken.

Suspect Is Arrested Noah Jordan, giving his address as Canton, was arrested on a suspicion charge by police 30 minutes after the robbery and was taken to the scene of the hold-up, but Underwood exonerated him from complicity in the affair. Jordan told Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston that he had walked to this city from Canton to visit his mother and sister, who he states reside at 99 1/2 Broadway. He is being held in jail pending a check-up of his story.

Underwood gave descriptions of the two bandits to police, stating that one was about 25 and the other 22 years of age. The older of the pair did most of the talking, he stated. Both were well dressed, but wore caps slouched down over their eyes. No automobile was seen by him when they first entered the station. It being believed by police that the pair had an accomplice located on Jennings ave. waiting for them with the engine of a machine ready for the get-away.

Attempts are being made to link the robbery with the hold-up of Miss Goldie Blair, 249 Depot st. Miss Blair was held up and robbed of about $89 in cash and two valuable rings by two youthful, well dressed bandits, about 3 a. m. Sunday.

Dutch Harbor, Uralaska, Sept. 25.—Slipping out of a stormy sky, unheralded, the Moscow-Newark seaplane, "Land of the Soviets" was moored here today awaiting favorable weather to continue its journey.

The departure from Attu, most western of the Alaskan Island group, was unannounced. Buffeted for almost 500 miles by a strong southerly gale, the plane surprised the residents of Dutch Harbor as it came out of laden clouds and came to rest in the harbor.

The gray, bi-motored cabin-type seaplane was seemingly in good condition as were the crew members.

LINDY BRAVES VIOLENT STORM

Intrepid Airman, Wife On Hop to Port of Spain, Despite Warning

Georgetown, British Guiana, South America, Sept. 25.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and Mrs. Lindbergh arrived here from Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana, in their amphibian plane at 9:15 o'clock, local time. As soon as he was brought ashore in a launch Colonel Lindbergh went to government house to pay his respects to the colonial officials.

Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana, South America, Sept. 25.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who blazed a new air mail and passenger trail from Miami, Fla., to this city, set out for home today. Col. Lindbergh, accompanied by his wife, hopped off in his Sikorsky amphibian plane for Port of Spain, Trinidad, at 5:45 a. m. o'clock.

Fifty minutes later the plane was passing over the mouth of the Saranac river at an altitude of 750 feet.

Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana, Sept. 25.—With a violent storm brewing off the Florida coast which may cut him off from wireless communication with the world, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh is scheduled to leave here today on the return flight of his trail-blazing aerial tour from North to South America.

Accompanied by Mrs. Lindbergh, the colonel is to make a wide circle over the Caribbean territory, paying courtesy calls to several South and Central American countries before the return to Miami on October 10.

Although weather conditions made long-distance transmission difficult, Col. Lindbergh was in almost continuous touch with Miami during the outward journey, but the tropical storm makes it seem probable that several hours may pass after today's takeoff during which the famous airman and his wife will be cut off from the world.

Before returning to Miami, the Lindberghs are scheduled to spend eight days at Cristobal, Panama Canal Zone. When they arrive back in the Florida city they will have covered more than 7,000 air miles.

The flight to Paramaribo was made to inaugurate a new air mail line for the Pan-American Airways.

Indictments Will Be Asked For Five

Cleveland, Sept. 25.—Indictments against four members of an alleged live-man band, which has preyed upon Cleveland banks with in past months, will be asked of the grand jury tomorrow, Assistant County Prosecutor Emerick B. Freed announced today.

Evidence against the reputed members of the holdup gang will be taken directly before the grand jury without a preliminary court hearing, it was said.

One member of the gang was severely indicted Monday by the grand jury in connection with a bank holdup August 17. He is Frank Hughes of Troy, N. Y.

Hughes' confederates gave their names as Walter Labaux, 28, of Philadelphia; Bernard and Paul Trasko, both of Detroit, and Mori L'Hommiedieu, 21 of Cleveland.

Negro Held In Jail

Columbus, Sept. 25.—A negro of Charleston, N. C., who was wounded in the shoulder by a bullet from the gun of Patrolman P. V. Houston after he had fired his own gun at the police officer, is in jail here today pending investigation of a confession in which he admitted four robberies.

Falls From Auto

Bellevue, O., Sept. 25.—Funeral arrangements are being made today for Mrs. Ralph Reed, 24, of Lima, who died from injuries which she received when she fell from an automobile in which she was riding last night.

Legn, Kan.—Despite severe dry weather the Kansas corn crop is coming strong, as is attested by a stalk measuring 17 feet 7 1/2 inches on the farm of Lloyd Green.

An Emersonian has developed a secret process for coloring steel various hues and at the same time making it stain and rust proof.

FARM NOTES Items of Interest Taken from Ohio Rural Districts

FOREST TREES READY FOR FALL PLANTING

Forest tree seedlings for fall planting of farm woods will be available at the state forest nurseries in October, it was announced by the forestry department at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster.

Deciduous species such as black walnut, black locust, hard maple, tulip poplar, elm, the oaks and white ash can be planted successfully in the fall after they shed their leaves and before freezing weather. Unless the season is unusually dry, trees planted at this time make some root growth before winter, which gives them an earlier start in the spring.

Evergreen species such as the pines, firs and spruces should not be planted in the fall as they will not winter well when planted at this time. They are best planted in April.

Planting stock for reforestation purposes can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to the State Forester at Wooster, Ohio. If the trees are desired for fall planting, the application should be made immediately.

Nuts and acorns may be collected in the fall and planted where the trees are to grow. This may be done as soon as they have matured. R. R. Paton, assistant forester, recommends dropping them into holes and covering with dirt to about twice their diameter.

Loss of seed taken by squirrels may be avoided by sowing the nuts in drills in the garden, where they are left to grow till next fall, when they are moved to the permanent location as soon as the leaves have fallen. The nuts must be planted in the fall rather than kept in storage if they are to germinate the following spring.

296 PIGS TELL STORY ON LIVESTOCK DAY

Farmers who wish to increase their profits from pig feeding will be interested in the story that 296 pigs in 35 experimental feed lots have to tell at the fall Livestock Day at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster, October 11.

These experiments in the growing and fattening of pigs were planned to furnish information on a number of questions in economical pig production. The 35 lots have been on the different rations during the summer and are now ready to answer those questions before they go to market.

Should the feeding period be divided into a growing period and a fattening period, or should the pig be given all the grain it will eat from the time of birth until it is ready for market? Will pigs that are given all the grain they will take while young become too fat to make good growth?

Will cheaper gains be made by pigs on pasture if the grain allowance is limited? Do pigs on clover pasture need any tankage or other high protein feed? Are minerals other than salt of any benefit to pigs on pasture? Is one kind of pasture better than another for pigs?

A high protein feed is needed by pigs on pasture. Is a mixture superior to tankage alone, as in winter feeding? What are soybeans worth for pigs, and how can they be fed to best advantage?

The pigs themselves will help to answer these questions. The results of the experiments will be presented and discussed by W. L. Robison, associate in animal industry. A hundred head of beef cattle will also be shown and the results of the experiments presented by Paul Gerlach, chief of the animal industry department. The lamb feeding experiments should also prove of interest. They will be presented by D. S. Bell, associate in charge.

Canada May Help Check Booze Flow

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 25.—The Canadian government is thinking of giving Uncle Sam a hand in checking the flow of booze across the border into the United States.

The Dominion expects to prohibit the granting of clearances for cargoes of liquor to the United States. Urgent requests for a law to this effect have been received from all parts of Canada.

As matters now stand, rum-runners need make no secret that the liquor which they intend to export is bound for the United States. There is no statute allowing officials to refuse a clearance to any one particular country.

Legislation to be enacted shortly, however, will authorize refusal of clearances when liquor is destined for the United States. Liquor exported to other countries will not be affected.

The concentration of United States dry forces at Detroit and other points along the border has cut down the running of beer to a great extent this year and the smuggling of hard liquor to a lesser extent, export figures show. However, during August, 42,640 more quarts of liquor were exported to the United States than in July this year, official figures reveal. This indicates that rum running is again on the increase.

Boston.—The results of a survey completed by the Connecticut Department of Agriculture showed that the Connecticut Valley tobacco crop damage in the recent heavy hailstorm was $2,307,000, as 705 tobacco farms with a total of 10,000 acres, suffered losses, according to figures announced by the New England council here.

Pressing flexible sides of a new stamp and envelope moisture forces water from a reservoir to a sponge rubber and releasing the pressure withdraws excess water.

Free From Neuritis and Stomach Agony

Bachache Gave, Too—Says He Is Entirely Well Again

Neuritis is bad enough but add stomach and kidney troubles as well, and you can imagine what Mr. S. D. Cramer of Dunkirk, Ohio, 119 Walnut Street, endured until he finally found how to obtain complete relief. Mr. Cramer says:

"For 15 years I was in agony with such sharp pains in my arms and limbs that I could hardly move them. I also had severe stomach and kidney trouble that added to my misery. I could eat very little and even that caused gas, bloating and biliousness. My kidneys were so bad they bothered me 8 or 10 times a night, and during the day, my back and head ached terribly at times, and I was so weak, dizzy and nervous that I was in despair. But what a difference. Tan-a-wa made me. The quick results amazed me. Now, I am free from neuritis and rheumatism for the first time in 15 years. I eat anything without having gas or stomach distress. The backache and kidney weakness have gone, and I sleep fine all night. I am rid of the dizzy, weak spells and nervousness. I feel well and strong all over, and I'm mighty grateful to Tan-a-wa for my recovery."

Tan-a-wa acts promptly on sluggish bowels, lazy liver and weak kidneys. It purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores appetite and digestion, and brings new strength and energy to the whole body.

MOVIES

"TIME, PLACE, THE GIRL"

Sweet heads do not always burst with a loud report and a hiss of hot air. Some of them deflate very slowly indeed and with the infliction of much pain and distress upon their owners.

The latter sort of swell-headed youth is revealed in all his glory in "The Time, the Place and the Girl," the Warner Bros. Vitaphone talking and singing picture now at the State Theatre. Robert Lord adapted the story from Hough Adams and Howard's musical comedy success.

Grant Withers is seen as the "hero"—and when one considers that he is the biggest football star of the season, that many women are crazy about him, and that bond houses are bidding for his services, the instant he gets out of college—one can hardly blame him.

His Wall Street adventures and his entanglements with several women bring him to earth—but there is, of course, the One Girl who whisks him back to a "blue heaven" of their very own.

Betty Compson and Gertrude Olmsted are the women and the remainder of the cast of this big talking picture includes John Davidson, James R. Kirkwood, Bert Roach, Vivian Oakland, Gretchen Hartman and Irene Haisman.

"COHENS AND KELLYS"

Kate Price, noted Irish comedienne, celebrated her second "divorce" and third "marriage" cinematically speaking, in her role of Mrs. Kelly in Universal's "The Cohens and Kellys in Atlantic City," which closes at the Royal Theatre tonight.

While George Sidney and Vera Gordon as Mr. and Mrs. Cohen have remained steadfast, Miss Price has had three husbands in as many Cohen-and-Kelly films.

In "The Cohens and Kellys" produced by Universal two years ago, Charlie Murray enacted Kelly. Last year in "The Cohens and Kellys in Paris," Miss Price for motion picture purposes was "married" to J. Farrell MacDonald. Now, in the latest of the immortal series, "The Cohens and Kellys in Atlantic City," Mack Swain is playing Kelly. Sidney, Miss Gordon and Miss Price have become popularly identified with their characters and are frequently referred to by the names of their roles. Sidney is the star.

William Craft, an expert at farce comedies, welded the melodrama on "The Cohens and Kellys in Atlantic City."

Ohio Wesleyan, Wittenberg Figured As Buckeye Grid Leaders

Miami Doped As Strong Contender For Honors In Ohio Football Loop

Bishops and Lutherans, 1928 Champions, Slated For Real Titular Battle; Ohio In Need Of Punter, While Cincinnati, Denison Are Weak

Cleveland, Sept. 25.—The formal opening of the 1929 football season is only three days away and already the gossips have begun comparing the relative merits of the college football in Ohio has taken a new hold in the past few years, and the progress of Ohio's 47 colleges and their showing during the season are now keenly watched by fans throughout the state. Rivalry has become more intense, attendance records have been shattered, and the grid game in general has a firm grip on the entire state.

The interest continues to grow more each year by leaps and bounds and Ohio college teams can now compare with the best in the country.

In the three conferences for Ohio colleges and universities, the Big Six or Buckeye Intercollegiate Association, comprised of six of the best teams in the state, draws unusual interest in its hotly contested flag race. Last year's champions, Ohio Wesleyan and Wittenberg, are again expected to fight it out. They were forced to divide the honors last season.

In addition to the two leaders, Miami University, which last year prevailed Wittenberg from winning a clean title, is considered in the race.

Miami Strong

According to this consensus, Miami looks best in its pre-season array with only three lettermen lost by graduation. Ohio Wesleyan, with 16 lettermen, is practically as well fixed as Miami although harder hit by graduation. Gauthier's two-team system assures him a squad of veterans every year. The Bishops have a wealth of flashy backs and ends and should be the strongest offensive team Coach Gauthier has ever produced at Wesleyan.

Wittenberg, with the greatest material in the conference, may be a little slow in setting under way, for a new coaching system is being introduced at Springfield and many of the best players on the squads are sophomores. By mid-season, the Lutherans should be as hard to stop as any team in the league.

Ohio claims considerable strength but it is agreed that the power of the Bobcat eleven will depend upon whether Coach Peden finds a punter and ball-toter who can fill the shoes of Pete McKinley, all-Buckeye back. His stellar playing alone kept the Ohio team in the running last year.

Cincinnati Meets Cedarville

Cincinnati, after losing all its Buckeye games last season, is on the up-grade and its success will depend largely on the showing made by a strong group of sophomores. At least the Bearcat team may advance at the expense of Denison whose team is exceptionally light and inexperienced. Coach Rupp has only five lettermen to carry the burden this year and the team faces the toughest schedule in the conference.

Despite Cincinnati's gloomy outlook for the season, it is expected to win its opener with ease, as Cedarville, its opponent, last week lost to Transylvania college of Lexington, Ky., 70-0. It will be the Bearcats' first experiment with night football.

Denison's opening game with the navy next Saturday may prove its downfall. A badly bruised team emerging from the game with the middies would never survive the remainder of a difficult season.

Fight Results

At New York—Ruby Goldstein, Ghetto, scored technical knockout over Freddy Meuler, Buffalo, in seventh round (10). Arturo Schekles, Belgium, won 10 round decision over Canada Lee, Harlem. Joey Leonard, brother of Benny Leonard, knocked out Al Palmer in second round (6). At Los Angeles—Ace Hudkins, Nebraska, scored technical Kayo over Joe Anderson in sixth round (10). At Cairo, Ga.—W. L. (Youna) Smiling, Macon, knocked out Jimmy Gibbons, St. Paul, in the third round (10). At Portland, Me.—Joe Zelinsky, Boston, knocked out Pat Dooley, Trenton, in first round (10). ### Business Men Free In Harvard Course

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 25.—The Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration announced that its course on the aspects of business will be open to business and professional men this year. This opportunity is available each year for one course in the school due to the generosity of George H. Leatherbee who left a bequest for that purpose in 1913.

In this course, which will be given by Professor Nathan Isaacs, negotiable instruments, property, partnerships, agency, partnerships, corporations and business regulations bear a close resemblance to the course names in a law school. These subjects, however, are treated as they might be in supplemental chapters to each of these law courses and cover the uses in business of the legal instrumentalities which are described minutely in such professional courses and for the most part superficially in business-law courses.

The first meeting of the course will be on Friday, September 27, and thereafter, it will meet on two afternoons a week throughout the first half of the school year.

The Leatherbee course is open only to such men as satisfy the school that their experience will permit them to profit from the work.

The number of telephones in the Free State has increased to nearly 25,000, and a rural system is in process of formation.

Yale Pigskin Pummelers Start Practice

Ravenna Races Open Saturday

Running races will start at Ravenna race track for a 19 day meet on Saturday, Sept. 28. The races will be held by the Exposition Park Jockey club, an organization headed by Harry D. Shepard and Jonas P. Pletch, operators of Beauliah park which closed a successful 21 day meet last Saturday. Ed Pabman, who has been running Ravenna meets regularly will not be connected with the Sept. 28th event.

Shepard, who has operated running races near Columbus for 27 years, the last six years in Beau-liah park of which he is part owner, declared today all 450 stalls at Exposition park were assigned last week. Indications were, Shepard said, that most of the horses which ran at Beau-liah park will come to Ravenna this week.

Seven races are scheduled for each day of the meet. Rules applying at Beau-liah park will govern all races run at Exposition park. Monday and Tuesday.

From indications, the track and stalls will be crowded on opening day.

Melvin Ott In Homerun Lead

Robin's Rookie Fielder Crashes National Doubles Mark

By HENRY McCLEMORE.

New York, Sept. 25.—Laugh clown laugh might as well read laugh Hornby laugh. Though the mighty Hornby smiles bravely as the Cubs fall to Lefty O'Doul, fair-haired wallop of the Phillies, the latter seems certain to tumble before the clubbing of Master Melvin Ott's big bat.

Master Ott, as the Giants kicked the Braves twice yesterday, 5-4 and 6-5, sliced himself two homers to tie Hornby's record 42 of 1922. He will no doubt find time to pat one more over the fence ere the season ends.

Youth scored again as the Phillies whipped the Robins, 3 to 0, when Johnny Frederick, Robin's Rookie outfielder, dumped his 31st double of the season over the infield. This is one more than Paul Waner got in 1928 when he set a record.

Hafey's homer helped the Cards bounce the Reds, 3 to 1.

Pittsburgh and Chicago were not scheduled.

Old Tom Zachary scored his twelfth straight win as the Yankees humbled Boston, 5 to 3. Before the game Ruth was presented with a loving cup from the Boston fans.

Rookie pitcher Herring and Rookie shortstop Akers combined to give Detroit a 9 to 4 win over the Browns. Herring allowed but seven hits while Akers hit a home run and a double in addition to fielding in great fashion.

The Indians punched their hits to trim the White Sox, 7 to 4.

Washington and Philadelphia were idle.

Independent Team In City Certain; Strong Lineup At Practices

A light but strong independent football team will represent Salem in sandlot football competition this fall. For M. Kelley, business manager of the new Althouse-Brown grid aggregation, announced today.

Assurance that the city will again place an independent team in the field was given when about fifteen candidates for the squad reported at initial practice sessions of the team, at the Memorial building. It is planned to play the opening game October 6.

Indications at the practices were that it will be one of the lightest teams ever organized for semi-pro football in Salem. Backfield prospects averaged around 140 pounds, while the line candidates didn't exceed the 175 mark on the scales.

The team will be coached by Bob Wilson, former Salem High and Rollins, Fla. college football star.

New Plan Considered

Most of the games this season will be played away from home due to the lack of a playing field here. Games will be played at Reilly Stadium.

Stadium Armistice Day and on Thanksgiving, but no others will be played here unless a new plan, now under consideration in the city, is adopted.

This new plan, to all appearances is the best thing brought up in the city since the organization of fall sports, for under it, Reilly Stadium will be equipped with arc lights and games will be played at night, during the week. Several colleges in the country are already playing night football, while the University of Cincinnati will use it all season, opening Saturday against Cedarville college.

With this plan having materialized, there is no doubt that it will be a success, for it will attract great interest throughout the eastern Ohio district.

Turn the light on the Truth!

It's just naturally good tobacco—not "artificial treatment" that makes OLD GOLD gentle to the throat and better to the taste

No one cigarette-maker has any monopoly on the heat-treatment of cigarette tobaccos.

For heat-treating is neither new nor exclusive. It has been used for years by practically all cigarette-makers to "set" and sterilize their tobacco.

But OLD GOLD'S goodness does not depend on artificial treatment. It is the product of naturally good tobaccos... carefully selected for mildness, smoothness and flavor. Tobaccos made free of "throat scratch" by Mother Nature herself.

Try a package. You'll immediately get the thrill of this smoother and better cigarette. And you'll know then why OLD GOLD'S sales are ALREADY THREE TIMES GREATER than the combined growth of three leading cigarette brands during a like period of their existence.

NEW BUICK WILL CAUSE INCREASE IN PRODUCTION

Universal Acceptance Of 1930 Auto Adds To Sales Activity

Universal acceptance of the new Buick line of automobiles has caused the greatest sales activity in the entire history of the Buick Motor Company, according to Frank G. Wells, of the Buick General Motors Corp. Buick's sales are pouring into the factory offices here, beyond the even anticipation of Buick officials.

The motoring public fully expects to have during the first few weeks of the Buick Motor Company will introduce a new, smart, and reasonably outstanding line of cars. Every family at our country was made to function in order to answer this public demand and the result is extremely gratifying, Buick officials.

Orders have come into the factory to fasten the first few weeks that it has been impossible for the production division to turn out enough cars to keep abreast of the demand. However, the Buick Motor Company is now arranging its plant facilities to take care of greater production, and they are rapidly getting in shape to handle the volume of orders.

All this illustrates again the part the public plays in the development and building of automobiles. Mr. Buick says: "The new Buick is meeting with outstanding success because it fulfills every desire of the fine car buying public at a price that is right."

Present-day motoring conditions demand unusual performance. The modern car must have a quick getaway, it must have speed, and it must have power. Buick for 1930 has all these requisites, and in addition possesses unusual sturdiness, dependability and comfort. The universal acceptance of the new line on the part of the public is evidenced by the healthy sales condition, and the continued leadership of Buick in the fine car field.

At the same time, Buick is rapidly increasing its production of cars, and the factory and the delivery and service departments will be correspondingly increased by the Buick Motor Company. The Buick Motor Company is now arranging its plant facilities to take care of greater production, and they are rapidly getting in shape to handle the volume of orders.

The principles of the range-finder have been applied to a new double microscope for measuring the depth of multiple corneal curvatures.

Old-Fashioned Double-Houses Extinct: Once Lacked Beauty

Old-fashioned double houses had a good idea behind them—that is, to make two houses grow where one grew before—but few of them had anything else in their favor. They were, in fact, ugly.

The idea is still good, according to M. L. Hane, Salem contractor, but nobody today wants to own or live in an unattractive house; so architects have turned their attention to the problem of making the duplex or semi-detached house a thing of beauty and a joy for as long as possible.

Economy is the fundamental idea behind the building of a double house. Although there are essentially two individual homes involved, there is but one excavation, one heating plant, one roof and, in many cases, one money-saving arrangement of plumbing, the fire-places and chimneys, etc.

In general, there are two types of the double house, the duplex, which is arranged apartment-style, with one unit directly above the other, and the semi-detached, in which a common central wall unites two otherwise separate houses. The problem of designing a duplex house is the architect's specialty. It is a matter of making like a two-story apartment house, the trick in planning a good semi-detached double house is to keep it from spreading over too much expensive territory.

Approach Of Wintry Weather Turns Thoughts To Fur Coats

The gradual approach of winter, and the exit of summer and the reign of warm weather, will most rapidly force the thought of the mother and daughter of the family to the question of "What shall I wear for coat in the winter?"

The chilly of the cold blast of King Winter, are lifted and transferred into cooling atmospheres, through the expert manufacture of furs, such as announced by Nick Kleon, furrier and tanner, of 23 Water St. General tanner's service is the keynote of Kleon's business, and the approval of each fall and winter brings a steady influx of business. There are few subjects in the matter of clothes, which are more discussed than fur coats and other fur clothing, for the average woman never feels dressed up, in part, unless included in her wardrobe is a fur coat and other furs to match, if necessary.

The looking, excited mob of speculators at every football game this fall will be made up of two-thirds women dressed in fur haberdashery. Nothing in the line of over-coating or lined with fur, according to Kleon, and it is because of this that each year brings greater popularity to the product of fox, mink seal, and other animal skin and fur.

It is to Kleon, who assist Salem women greatly in selecting the fall fur coat, while he is also able to equip any individual with other winter necessities in the fur line. His phone number is 1175, while his residence is almost directly in the rear of the Memorial building.

NOT GUILTY IS PLEA ENTERED

Man Accused of Driving Car Recklessly Out On Bond

Libon Sept. 25.—Wallace Weaver of West township who was indicted by the September grand jury for reckless driving, entered a plea of not guilty, and his bond for trial was placed at $400 as was set in the lower court. Attorney W. W. Beck was appointed by the court to defend him.

Robert Dutcher, who entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with operating a motor vehicle without the consent of the owner on an indictment returned by the April grand jury, when he was arraigned two weeks ago has been sentenced to serve from one to 20 years in the Mansfield reformatory.

Dutcher was indicted by the September grand jury on three robbery counts, and he withdrew his plea of not guilty, entered one of guilty to each indictment, and has been sentenced to serve from four to 15 years. Both sentences are to run concurrently. Before Dutcher was arrested on the automobile charge he enlisted in the United States army and then deserted. When he returned to Mansfield township he was arrested after he committed the three robberies.

Ailing Housewives Welcome Owa-Ton-Na

Dizziness and Backaches Disappear When This Fine Old Indian Remedy Is Used

MRS. GEORGE BROWN

Mrs. George Brown, 67 Perry St., Salem, Ohio, tells how Owa-Ton-Na helped her. She says: "For three years I have been terribly constipated. I have been suffering a great deal with indigestion and awful attacks of sourness and gas. It just seemed that whenever I ate, I would have to be afraid of those terrible bloating spells and the headaches I had made me miserable. As if this were not enough, I would have terrible backaches and dizzy spells. My kidneys gave me a great deal of trouble and I was just getting to the point where I didn't know what to do. I was simply all in most of the time. I had heard so much of the good Owa-Ton-Na had been doing for other people and knowing that it was a harmless remedy, decided to give it a trial.

"It just seemed to take hold of my condition and removed that tired, worn out feeling as if by magic. My stomach acts fine and when I eat, I don't have to be afraid of those gas and bloating spells. What a glorious relief to get rid of those headaches and backaches. My bowels are acting regularly."

You, too, can enjoy better health if you will but give Owa-Ton-Na a trial. Why not call today at your drugstore and obtain a bottle for yourself. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Fieding's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores.
